The Office of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender (LGBT) Life at Emory University is seeking graduate, undergraduate or professional students interested in gaining group facilitation experience through queer discussion groups offered during the 2014-2015 academic year. This is a wonderful opportunity for students to gain facilitation experience that can allow them to become better teachers, mentors, organizers, and leaders.

Program Outcomes

- Participant Outcomes
  - Provide a safe space for queer students to discuss issues and explore resources to address needs
  - Provide an entry point for students to connect with the Office of LGBT Life and other resources on campus and in the community
  - Create supportive micro-communities that enrich and sustain individuals personally, professionally, and academically
  - Increased sense of belonging and community on campus
  - Promote intercultural understanding and non-oppressive attitudes and behaviors

- Facilitators Outcomes (in addition to the above outcomes)
  - Create opportunities to increase facilitation skills
  - Promote student-student and student-staff mentoring among queer facilitators

Program Background

The queer discussion groups are weekly, hour-long groups focusing on topics related to sexual and gender identities. Groups for next year include:

- Bi/Pansexual Group: This discussion group explores the experiences of bisexual and pansexual people at Emory. The group is open to all students that identify as a bisexual or pansexual. (UPDATE: Seeking 1 facilitator)
- Queer and Asian: This group provides opportunities for students to explore and celebrate the intersections of sexual identity, gender identity, and Asian heritage & culture. (UPDATE: No positions remain open for Q&A)
- Queer Men’s Group: This group explores ways to develop and support relationships between gay, bisexual, transgender, questioning, same-gender-loving, intersex, and/or pansexual men at Emory. (UPDATE: Seeking 1 facilitator)
- Queer Students of Color Group: This group explores ways to celebrate our identities and navigate a predominately white, hetero/gender normative campus as lesbian, gay, bisexual, pansexual, transgender, queer, questioning, and/or intersex people of color. (UPDATE: Seeking 2 facilitators)
- Trans-Forming Gender Group: This group celebrates all gender expressions and identities while exploring our experiences in a gendered world. (UPDATE: Seeking 1 facilitator)
Two facilitators will be assigned to each group. The facilitators will be supervised by staff from the Office of LGBT Life.

Becoming a Facilitator

Facilitators do not need to be “experts” but should have a strong interest in the group’s focus, demonstrate the ability to be good listeners and facilitators, and have open minds. Facilitators are expected to attend training sessions, plan and facilitate weekly group meetings, attend weekly meetings with the group supervisors, promote and market groups, and be visible representatives (in publications, websites, etc.) from the Office of LGBT Life. Positions are unpaid.

Interested facilitators must:

- Be an undergraduate/professional/graduate student enrolled in a degree seeking program at Emory University
- Have experience in supporting and referring students
- Be available for the full 2014-2015 academic year
- Be willing and able to represent the Office of LGBT Life as a group facilitator in publications and social media
- Be available to commit 2-3 hours/week for the discussion group, supervision, planning and training times including:
  - Fall/spring training (1.5 day training) — REQUIRED FALL TRAINING WILL BE MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 2014 (Labor Day) from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
  - Weekly supervision meeting (1 hour/week)
  - Discussion Group planning/processing with co-facilitator (1 hour/week)
  - Discussion Group (1 hour/week)

Experience working with queer students is desired but not required.

Students can apply to become a facilitator by sending a cover letter, resume, and the names of at least two references to the following address by August 1, 2014 (electronic submissions preferred):

Dr. Michael D. Shutt
Emory University Office of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Life
