J. Michael Aycock Leadership Development Fund
Request for Funding

Purpose
The J. Michael Aycock Leadership Development Fund is to support leadership opportunities and increase the leadership potential for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender students. Leadership opportunities can include but are not limited attendance/participation in:

- LGBT Leadership retreats;
- LGBT Leadership programs;
- National, regional or state LGBT conferences; and
- LGBT Networking events

Eligibility
Individual Leadership Awards in the maximum amount of one thousand dollars can be made to students who are enrolled at Emory on a full-time basis at the time of the award. Students may only receive one Award per academic year, but may reapply for an Award in subsequent academic years.

Student groups may also be granted an Award in the maximum amount of one thousand dollars for group leadership opportunities. If a group is granted an Award, individual group members may apply for individual funding for other opportunities within the same academic year.

Application/Selection Process
Requests for funding are accepted on an ongoing basis. Applicants must submit a letter of intent (maximum 1 page) to the Director of the Office of LGBT Life. This letter should include:

- Description of the leadership opportunity
  - Overview of the opportunity
  - Dates
  - Location
- Description of outcomes you hope to achieve by participating in the opportunity
- Budget
  - Detailed expenses
  - Other sources of funding
- Registration and other deadlines
- Applicant information form

The recipient of the Award must provide a brief (one-page) report to the Director of the Office of LGBT Life following the conclusion of the leadership opportunity. The report must include a description of how the recipient benefited from the Award.
